Strategic Personal Development

The Core Concept

OKRs (Objectives and Key Results) are a simple but powerful framework used by top companies to set ambitious goals and track progress.

Strategic Personal Development

Using OKRs

	 Objective	 Key Result
Definition	What to achieve	How to measure achievement
Attributes	Significant, concrete, action-oriented, inspirational	SMART
Quantity	Single	3-5 per Objective
Example	Become a more empowering leader	Delegate tasks, reduce 'doing' time, improve feedback

| Strategic Personal Development

Using OKRs

Objective:

Become a more empowering and delegative leader.

Key Results (for Q2):

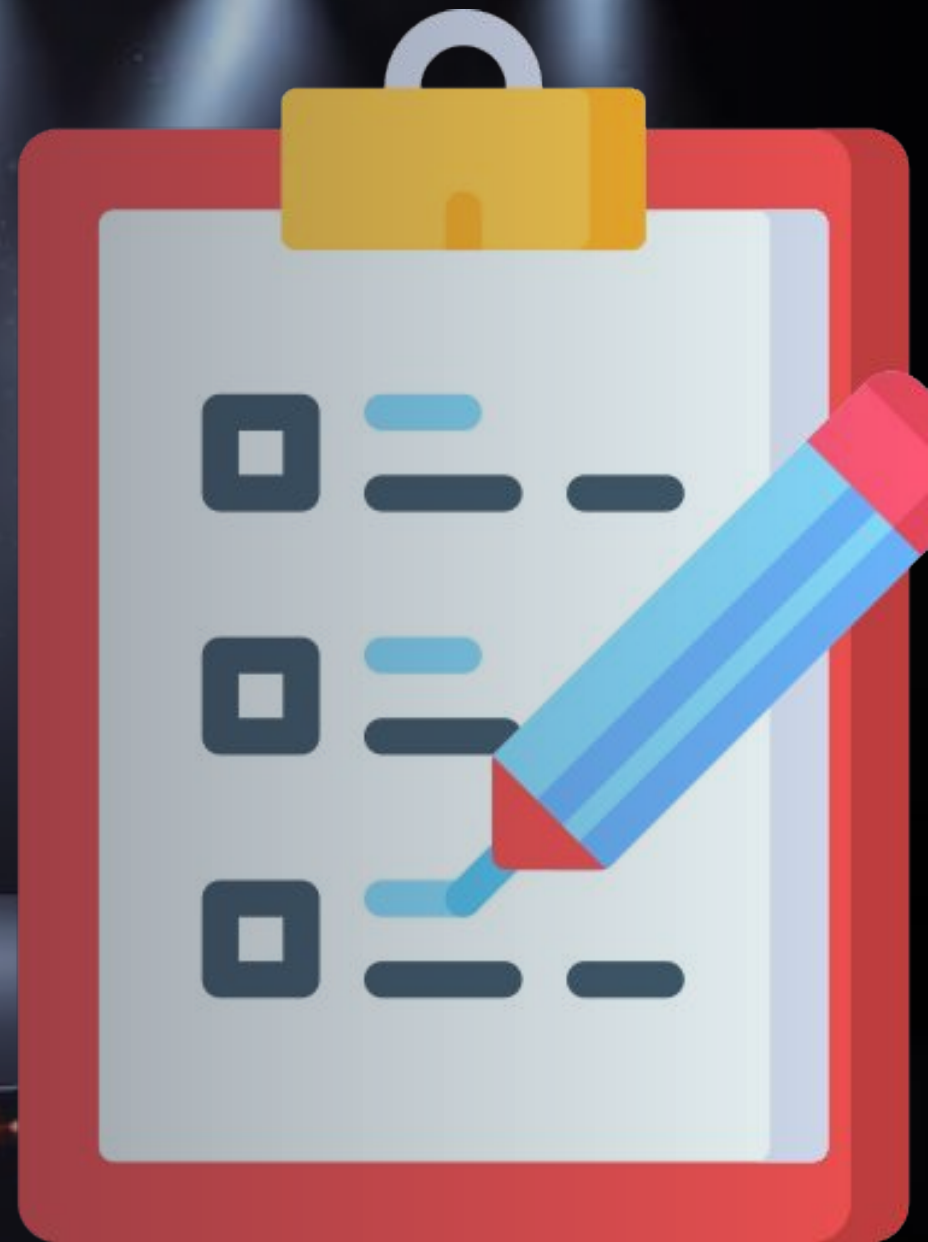

- ❑ KR1: Delegate 3 significant tasks currently on my plate to team members, with clear success metrics, by the end of Q2.
- ❑ KR2: Reduce my own 'doing' time on team projects by 20%, as measured by my weekly time tracking.
